

Working together we can achieve great things.

This year TAL is proud to be a platinum sponsor of the AFA 2017 National Adviser Conference. We figured out a long time ago that we're only as strong as our partnerships, which is why we're committed to join forces with you to help insure and protect more Australians.

We know that when great individuals come together, exceptional things can happen. So this year, we're inviting you to sit, relax and chat with us at the TAL stand to discuss how we can achieve great things together.

A higher social purpose with Sir Bob Geldof

We are honoured to sponsor the conference's headline speaker, Sir Bob Geldof. He will share his unique life perspective, drawing upon his mission to bring peace, justice and equality to the world. Through his work as a humanitarian and activist, and reflecting on his musical career, he will inspire us all to live a higher social purpose.

Don't miss his session at 3:50pm on Friday 13 October.

Scan your pass, for a chance to win
